When I'm with you I am happy
And that's more than I can say I usually am
And when I look into your eyes and theres something I can't decide
It's hitting me hard, your smile

And then you
Brush your hand upon my neck
As you pull me closer by the small of my back
And there's something in your eyes
And theres something in your smile
There's something in you that's living in me

You spin the rings round my fingers Well, that usually means that you've got something to say
You twirl my hair around your fingertips
Means you're concentrating on something to explain this feeling
And then you
Brush your hand upon my neck
As you pull me closer by the small of my back
And there's something in your eyes
And there's something in your smile
There's something in you that's living in me

And I worry you will go to sleep
Not knowing how much you mean to me
And I wonder will I be in your dreams tonight

And then you
Brush your hand upon my neck
As you pull me closer by the small of my back
And there's something in your eyes
And there's something in your smile
Oh there's something in you that's living in me
