Writer: Audrey Gordon ?2004, All Rights Reserved

INTRO:

Big bout ya Jesus big bout ya, Big bout ya, Jesus big

Big bout ya Jesus big bout ya,, Big bout ya Jesus big bout ya,

Cho:

Mirror shows your reflection so stop and check upon your action

There is cause and effect to every action

Like smoke from fire is a reaction

Come and walk out a Babylon

It's the call of God to every nation

Work out your own salvation

If you refuse you will be doomed for destruction

I want; I want to tell you a story tell you a story about
Jesus,

Jesus Christ and his love

I want, I want to tell you a story tell you a story about
Jesus,

Jesus Christ and his love

That he's worthy, worthy of honor and glory full up might and majesty

He's worthy, worthy of honor and glory full up
might and majesty

He was the only Son of God, yes, he was begotten
Born of a woman and yes she was a virgin

He's worthy, worthy of honor and glory full up
might and majesty

He has died and risen and gone back to heaven

Coming back again and only for his chosen

He's worthy, worthy of honor and glory full up
might and majesty

He is truth , heâ€™s the founder and creator
Light in darkness shines in splendor
Earth, wind and water and the worldâ€™s in place
He put the stars and the moon in space
Birds and fishes and the human race (woyoyo)

CHORUS:

Mirror shows your reflection
Just flex and check upon your action
There is cause and effect to every action
Like smoke from fire is a reaction
Come and walk out a Babylon
Itâ€™s the call of God to every nation
Work out your own salvation
If you refuse you will be doomed for destruction

I want; I want to tell it to the nations
Tell them about the salvation of Jesus Christ and his love
I want; I want to tell it to the nations
Tell them about the salvation of Jesus Christ and his love

3.

Heâ€™s the conquering Lion of the tribe of Judah Raised from the grave with might and power
Prince of peace and Lily of the valley, his majesty.

Chorus

Mirror shows your reflection
Just flex, stop and check upon your action
There is cause and effect to every action
Like smoke from fire is a reaction
Come and walk out a Babylon
Itâ€™s the call of God to every nation
Work out your own salvation
If you refuse you will be doomed for destruction
