Was on the run, a road that I ruined,
Chasing a lie I thought I believed in,
Don't know why I do what I do

Running from you, is running to you
You're everywhere... I couldn't escape
You never stop - you never do.

I was full of fear and prone to wander,
Lost & lonely till the day you won me over, you won me
Over
I was halfway gone and going nowhere
Half alive until the day you won me over, you won me
Over, over

I should have known what I was missing
If I were you, I would have stopped chasing
Your love's too strong to let me go.

I was full of fear and prone to wander,
Lost & lonely till the day you won me over, you won me
Over
I was halfway gone and going nowhere
Half alive until the day you won me over, you won me
Over, over, yeah

I was full of fear and prone to wander.
'Til you won me over, you won me over
I was halfway gone & going nowhere.
Til you won me over, 'til you won me over
Yeah, 'til you won, yeah

I was halfway gone and going nowhere...
