I can't remember how long it's been
There's not much love in these lies
But I'm not afraid to live in a world of sin
I'll live without the truth and burn the ties

[CHORUS]

What doesn't kill us only makes us stronger
But would that mean I'll be here forever?
If it doesn't still I still won't live much longer
But I won't give my life like a war mongrel

There's not much damage you did
I choose my path and walk it proudly
All that I hear is nothing too new
I may be forsaken but I won't live cowardly

I should praise you for what I've been through
You helped me realize that there's not much left here
If I'm already weakened this through
How will I live holding anything this dear?
[CHORUS END]

I'll never look to the past for review
I'd rather just forget and live on without it
But every time, I grit my teeth at your sight

How can I still love you this little bit?

I love you and I'll always bear in mind you
How could I be so dumb?
Look what happened when you were through
But I'll be fine as everything grows numb.

[CHORUS]

What doesn't kill us only makes us stronger
But would that mean I'll be here forever?
If it doesn't still I still won't live much longer
But I won't give my life like a war mongrel

There's not much damage you did
I choose my path and walk it proudly
All that I hear is nothing too new

I may be forsaken but I wont live cowardly

I should praise you for what I've been through
You helped me realize that there's not much left here
If I'm already weakened this through
How will I live holding anything this dear?
[CHORUS END]
