

An Awkward Symphony "Psychological Breakdown"

Strike me down
You've slain my heart
You've shattered my mind
And I'm slowly dying

My soul is burning in the dark
The fuel is hate and sorrow
With this overwhelming burden
I comfort myself with pain

[CHORUS]

I'm a living being with a curse
You have damaged me to this place
How does it feel to know this?
I love you, with equivalent hate
But nothing can stop this psychological breakdown

[CHORUS END]

Now I'm living for nothing
All of my life is hollow
I cannot find true tranquility
Just another fake smile

[BRIDGE]

It all ends now
It all ends now

[CHORUS]

I'm a living being with a curse
You have damaged me to this place
How does it feel to know this?
I love you, with equivalent hate
But nothing can stop this psychological breakdown

[CHORUS END]
