a F d
As the sky turns black, the earth sleeps in peace,
a F d roaming the clouds, in search of the sacred place,
a F d spirits soar higher, to a land where they are King,
a F d mortal shells left with you within-shadows they dwell

Ref:

G a G D e G a

Take me far away-deep within a dream within a dream

There I can be free, from life's misery, blood rushes through my veins, I can feel exhilaration, the freedom of my mind, can take me far beyond, there clearly seen, life's unreality, Sanctuary

Each night I await the call, of my silent quest, to run through the wind, alive in the darkness, as the dawn gets closer, I shall return, to live amongst mortels, for a nightfall I yearn
