Strophe:

C G

Oh my name is Jock Stewart,

a F

I4m a canny gaun man,

C G C G

And a roving young fellow I4ve been.

Refrain:

C G

So be easy and free

a F

When you4re drinking with me,

C G C G

I4m a man you don4t meet every day.

Strophe:

I4m a roving young blade,

I4m a piper to trade,

And many4s the tune I can play.

Refrain:

Strophe:

I4ve got acres of land,

Aye and men at command,

And many4s the shilling in store.

Refrain:

Strophe:

I go out with my dog

And my gun for to shoot,

All along by the banks of the Tay.

Refrain:

Strophe:

So come fill up your glasses

With brandy(strong whisky) and wine,

And whatever the cost I will pay.

Refrain:
