Strophe:

a d G C e

I listened and suffered to a cold night's warning,

a d G C e

I've never walked closer to the edge of the dawning.

F d G

Every step that I take could carry me homeward,

F G a

Every step that I take could carry me homeward.

Strophe:

Now that I'm falling, I wash away my sorrows,

Down by the river with my face in the cold wind.

Refrain:

F d G

Why don't you pray for me?

F G a

Why don't you pray for me?

Strophe:

The violent whispers they are trying to wake me,

Now they condemn me down by the river.

Refrain:

Solo: C G d a C G F E

a d G C e a d G C e

Refrain:

Strophe:

I listened and suffered to a cold night's warning,

I've never walked closer to the edge of the dawning.
