A
Rider in the Dusk
Your horse will know the way
In the mellow mellow moon
Five hours 4til the day
Ref
G a
You fear the highwaymen
G D a
You fear the ghosts
G a
You fear the banshee cry
G D a
But the loneliness you fear the most

Rider in the Dusk
The hoffbeat in your brain
You swore you4ll never do it

But here you are again
Rider in the Dusk
Don4t you want a bride
To settle down for good
To leave behind the night
Rider in the Dusk
What you4re running from
Why did you adopt
The darkness as your home
Rider in the Dusk
The mellow moon is gone
And while you curse your destiny
You4re riding on and on and on
