Intro: a

Lautes Intro: a F G a F G

Strophe:

a F G

Memories scattered all around the room

a F G

Letters written in your hand.

a F G a F G

All the treasures that you gave to me they4re all gone.

a F G

Timeless pictures of a summer4s night,

a F G

Near the bay every star4s so bright,

a F G a F G

Salty breezes blowing in your hair, but I didn4t care.

Refrain:

C G a F G C

I4m sorry but now you4re gone I4m sorry for all I4ve done

C G F G a FG aFG

The carelessness of things I said I4m sorry for all I did.

Strophe:

Dressed like summer in an open field

As sweet as roses in the wind,

You take me with you and I4m out of sight on he hills.

Sometimes it takes a song to break a tear

And even angels sometimes die,

Within the clouds you were always there, always cared.

Refrain:

Strophe:

And all the dreams we had now lying dead,

Be we both know we4re still in love.

We looked for heaven all through the years, all the years.

Memories scattered all around the room,

Letters written in your hand.

All the treasures that you gave to me they4re all gone.

Refrain:

a F G a F G

Bridge: d B C d B C

2. Refrain: F C d BC F C BC dBC dBC
