

An Cat Dubh

"The Mad Lady And Me"

Visit "The Mad Lady And Me" on MotoLyrics.com e C

Among the walls and ruins of the horrid civic stone

D e

I walked without a lover for my older bones

e D

The sun was strong in going down it was a dreamlike day

D e

it's there we met the trinity it's there I heard them say

Chorus:

G D a e

And she said bye bye mama goodbye brother John

G D a e

farethee well ye shandon bells ring on ring on

She leaned and leaned much closer and she kissed them all goodbye

her mother said don't go my love we all must bye and bye

a drunken tongue said leave her off she'll drive us all crazy

she turned around and saw my face and both of us was she

Chorus

Up and to the limestone wall and down the level steps she threw herself into the stream with a splash and no regrets

side stroke swimming midstream throwing kisses to the crowd

and everything was silent and the sky knew not one cloud

we were swimming out in the sunset we were swimming out to sea

swimming down by the Opera House the mad lady and me

