Come down from your horse and run because

The devil has taken possession of it.

Delusion is charming. seduction is near.

We walk along roads of beauty that are already withered

And swim in seas of love that have already run dry.

Delusion is charming. seduction is near.

We seem to be hunting ghosts that bear our own names.

Can we calm those who were born aflame? calm ourselves.

Calm the demons that are the branches overgrowing our hearts.

Regain!
