i was listening to the voices in my head you shoud've heard some of the things they said i want to find out what it really meant just wasn't making any sense first i was scared to death then i thought what the hell bring it on lay it on me

shine the light
c'mon and make me see
i will give myself to you if you show me what to do so bring it on there's some kinda radio going in my brain i swear it's gonna make me go insane sometimes your stuck between the stations like you intend different shows from different nations i wanna make it stop but i can't turn it off

bring it on shine the light bring it on tonight
c'mon

i keep flicking through the channels in my mind i'm still afraid of things that i might find i'm searching for the perfect frequency but now i realise what they'll do with me

bring it on tonight
c'mon
