Don't run away
If you know that you've got what it takes
Don't shy away
Sleep now
Dream here
And hopefully
the night will release your fear

There will be tears to shed again
Time to begin
And time to end
Baby and you say I'll be sad
But that depends

Baby now
come on recognise me
I know that you know my face
Weren't you once the one who told me you'd be there
And everytime I try to walk away
You keep me in my place
I try to break away but I am much too much to scared yeah I try to break away but I am much too much to scared

Yeah..

And think
Of your chance
Life will grant you one and that's your last Hey
Baby don't think too fast
No, No
Cause you can't have mine
Cause all I'll do is move you round in time
OOooooH

Baby there will be nights to sleep alone
Time to fight and time to grow
Baby and you say I'll be sad

But you don't know

Baby now

come on recognise me

I know that you know my face

Weren't you once the one who told me you'd be there

And everytime I try to walk away

You keep me in my place

I try to brake away but I am much to much to scared yeah I try to brake away but I am much to much to

scared

Yeah baby I try to brake away but I'm much to much to

scared

Much to much to scared

Much to much to scared

Much to, much to scared to scared

Move you round in time

I'll move you round in time

Baby I'll move you round in time

Baby come on recognice me

OOOOhhh

come on recognise me

Come on recognise me

Come on recognise me

Come on recognise me

Come on recognice me yeah

And I'll move you around in time

I'll move you round in time
