VERSE 1

You say that you've had enough
You've given up on love
You say that you'll never trust
Well I can see
That your heart's been broken too many times
It wasn't wrong now it's locked up so tight
And you're standing strong

Chorus:

If you ever fall just fall into my arms
I will never hurt you
If you're ever gonna trust this heart
I will be here to catch you when you fall

VERSE 2

I have been watching you
I've seen this all before
What you must be goin' through
It's hard to take
When love seems so far out of your reach
You don't wanna try
You're too scared to feel to ashamed to cry

REPEAT CHORUS
