"Perfect Sometimes"

I catch every whisper
Surrounding your head
You got the look
Of a poor girl wondering
Where she will sleep tonight
Am I a fool to let you in

You said it would all work out
And everything will be the same
Someday soon
I followed willing just staring at your heels
As I walk towards the grave mistake
An am I a fool to let you

Sometime were blind and stupid
Sometimes we need to find out for ourselves
We all get carried away

Sally never had a night like this
Now she's dangling one foot off a cliff
Saying bet I could beat you down
She's crouched behind her bedroom door
Making phone calls that her friends ignore
Wondering why the world let her down
An am I a fool to let you.

Sometimes were blind and stupid
Sometimes we need to find out for ourselves
Were just young and anxious
We all get carried away

Cause perfect is just not who we are Perfect is just not who we are

Sometimes were blind and stupid
Sometimes we need to find out for ourselves
We all get carried away sometimes
