Lost in the autumn breeze
My soul wants to leave this shell
Suck me up
Let me go

Longing for the unknown
An inner journey's taking place
I hear your voice
But not your words

Chorus:

For all the things I couldn't be
For all the times I didn't see
I'm sorry
For all the times I dreamt away

For all the times I didn't stay
I'm sorry

Confronting my emptiness
Don't know why I feel this way
But I am restless
And low

Sometimes I need some space to think
Sometimes these walls are choking me
I love this place
But I can't stay
