I'm a nazi and a christian,
Satanic and a heathen too
Reverted are the records I play,
When I've got nothing better to do
I wear my bomberjack,
If that's the way it's gotta be
I'll burn my country's flag,
It's all the same to me

You fear the words like 'turks' or 'jew',
Can't call them 'faggots' or 'niggers' too
Why resist what is naturally divided?
Should I be nice while I hate your guts?
What's wrong with women that are called a slut?
I don't know, maybe I'm too shortsighted

Try to read my eyes,
'Coz what's really in a name
Get rid of your frustrations,
Find some minorities to blame
I'll use you as my target,
But that's something ya should take
A medal still has two sides,
So what difference does it make?

No, I can't compare to you, you are not like me
Then again it's sad but through my eyes you'll never see...
