"Sweet Tears Of Redemption"

Never before have I come so near
Naked before the purest fear
Screaming out all the pain inside
Seeing all but never felt so blind

Bleeding from wounds unknown
Smile to the world for I've never shown
The weaknesses that infest my soul
My splintered mind seaching for a goal

Deceiving myself with impure dreams

Spitting the goddess in her eyes
Kneeling before my own lust
As the last human spot in me dies

Solo: Patrik

Chorus:
I will be released again
The clouds that block my sight
Will appear as transparent
Once I face the light
