

Anadivine

"Love, Lust, And Fake Integrity"

Visit "Love, Lust, And Fake Integrity" on MotoLyrics.com

Far from land
For empty breeze away
Silence tries to get this fortune
In a box wrapped with jades
Id hold up if i were only strong enough
To recall the nights when you called out my name
We can't hold onto this fortune
Id call you up if i were only dumb enough
To forget the nights when you cried out his name
Has that been your best intention
Id call you up if i were only strong enough Lets cast these words into the sea put em in a bottle we agreed
And promise bottoms up before we write this down

Intoxicate sincerity love, lust, and fake integrity
The feeling i wish you would have
My last words to the sea (to the sea)
Id hold you up if i were only strong enough
To recall the nights when you called out my name
We can't hold on to this fortune
Id call you up if i were only dumb enough
To forget the nights when you cried out his name
Has that been your best intention
Ill call you up
We can't hold onto this fortune
Ill call you up
Ill call you up
Has that been your best intention

Visit Anadivine page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.