A few years ago i snuch F. Mercury into your son's room I gave him anasthesia so he'd never remember getting raped
You spent your life savings putting your kid trough college
Then he died of AIDS, so you wasted your money for nothing
I made your kid get AIDS so you could watch it die
I made your kid get AIDS so you could watch it cry
You thought your son was on a diet, so you didn't worry too much
At the funeral I told you what happened, and laughed at you
I didn't think that you suffered enough
So I shot your wife in front of you Bracs, summer camp, college - you wasted all your money Food, clothing, trips to Disney World - you wasted all your money
Birthdays, Christmas, The Tooth Fairy - you wasted all
your money
Lunchmoney, fieldtrips, toys - you wasted all your money
