You toothless inbred retard
Why do you still even care
There'll never be another civil war
You're mad 'cause your trailer has a flat tire

The south won't rise again
The south won't rise again
The south won't rise again
The south won't rise again

What could you possibly gain
By breaking the country in two
Your overalls are gay
Let go of your sisters tit

I think it's cool that you make moonshine
It's even coller when you go blind from drinking it
How come your ancestors didn't realize They'd lose 'cause their president was named after boss hogg

The south won't rise again
The south won't rise again
The south won't rise again
The south won't rise again
