

Anal Firing Pin Strikers "Reality"

Visit "Reality" on MotoLyrics.com

I always faced the strong situations
I always made my own decisions
I gotta some time to think and fell me alive
I gotta 23 years old now
And my life it's hard because you
You wanna bring me so down

I waste my years
Fallowing something that I don't know
But now It' done

You always tried to lie to me
I never trust and I say so fuck you
Because this time I feel this inside
Go on my way without a name
I heard the people speak on my back
They don't know what I'm feelin' this time

I waste my years
Fallowing something that I don't know
But now It' done
