If I could write one letter
To the world as we know it
I would list these rhymes
That mean everything to me

Heartache temporary
Bullets only stop your blood
Pain will live on and on
In everyone, in everyone

[Chorus]
And we could change, (we could change it down)
We could change the world
We could strike the chord (We are the lost ones, We are the lost ones)
We could re-write history
If only you and me (We are the lost ones, We are the lost ones)
And we could change it down

The model holds no answers
His lips can only sway
Chemicals imbalance
Who needs them anyway?

Desire is close at hand
Her lips can only sway
There's more to life than this
Don't give yourself away
Don't give yourself away

And we could change (We could change it down)
We could change the world
We could strike the chord (We are the lost ones, We are
the lost ones)
We could re-write history
If only you and me (We are the lost ones, We are the
lost ones)
And we could change it down

Don't give yourself away [3x]

And we could change it down (We could change it down.. We could change it)
We could change the world
We could strike the chord (we are the lost ones, we are
the lost ones)
We could rewrite history
If only you and me (We are the lost ones, We are the
lost ones)
We could change the world
If only you and me (We are the lost ones, We are the lost ones)
