So maybe i spent yesterday cutting you out of all my pictures
Does that make me lonely?
Read me like a book, then tear out all the pages
Another sad story with no fairy tale ending
No ending

Falling deeper into lies

Behind the eyes
This headache rings
Just like the words
You say to me
Falling deeper into lies

Wiping the slate clean again, erasing all the lies Finding deepest solace in your weeping eyes Wiping the slate clean again (it's over) erasing all the lies (it's done)
Finding deepest solace in your weeping eyes (it's over)

Falling deeper into lies
