"Through The Wall"

Calm are the days
Where the lost people graze
Open their smile
With a pound of insight.

Shelter
From the place you feel small
Shelter
From the wind through the wall

Caged from the street
Where the lost are unseen
Stolen the sun
Live in shadow, live as one

Shelter
From the place you feel small
Shelter
From the wind through the wall

Calm are the days
Where the lost people graze
Open their smile with a pound of insight
Stolen the sun
Live in shadow, live as one.

Shot the sun
Shot the sun

Shelter
From the place you feel small
Shelter
From the wind through the wall.
