Like the sun trading place with the moon
Like the flower from the earth in the month of June
Like the tears from my eyes that eventually dry
It would happen
Like the beating of my heart in my chest
Will have to stop when I'm laid to rest
Just like I knew that you do what you do
That's why we're through

It was inevitable
Don't even act like you didn't know
That it was inevitable
You should have been faithful,
You should have been holding it down
I guess it's true that nothing really lasts forever
And it would be foolish to stay together
I'm telling you that you should have known
That it was inevitable
It was inevitable

Like the river to the falls
We were bound to come crashing down
Same like summer into fall
We were bound to change
Like the rising tide and the years go by
We were meant to run our course
And like my crying eyes that are finally dry
We had no choice

It was inevitable
Don't even act like you didn't know
That it was inevitable
You should have been faithful,
You should have been holding it down
I guess it's true that nothing really lasts forever
And it would be foolish to stay together
I'm telling you that you should have known
That it was inevitable
It was inevitable

I said you shoulda known it
You shoulda known it

Shoulda saw the signs that you about to blow it
I shoulda known too good would always be Too different to be true, so true
And yes my broken heart would heal
And I will find a way to cope and heal
And I will get back up and on my way
Like night to day

It was inevitable
Don't even act like you didn't know
That it was inevitable
You should have been faithful,
You should have been holding it down
I guess it's true that nothing really lasts forever
And it would be foolish to stay together
I'm telling you that you should have known
That it was inevitable
It was inevitable

It was inevitable
Don't even act like you didn't know
That it was inevitable
You should have been faithful,
You should have been holding it down
I guess it's true that nothing really lasts forever
And it would be foolish to stay together
I'm telling you that you should have known
That it was inevitable
It was inevitable
