I hear your voice, saying close your eyes don't make a sound, take my hand embrace the silence into a place where we were meant a thing where time don't exist make a wish and drift away, higher up, higher up

Chorus:

Higher, you lift me up, show me where the sun and the sky is to where I belong with you, (higher) Well I wanna fly, your wings they protect me from falling down
flying to higher ground

No longer afraid, 'cause with you I'm safe a stone that wouldn't break want you more with each breath I take (higher up)
You take me far away

Chorus:

sky is
Well I wanna fly, your wings they protect me from
falling down
flying to higher ground

With you I feel safe with you I'm strong with you I'm not scared to fall you lift me up to where I belong, higher up, higher up

Chorus:

You take me
Higher, you lift me up, show me where the sun and the sky is
falling down
