Hold Me For A Moment
(Thomas Gustavsson/hugo Lira/Jamie Hartman)
Singer/Anders Johansson

Some say I should'nt be feeling this way
Some say I should'nt stay but they dont know you
The way that I know you
Sometimes, watching you sleeping at night
Hear you breathing and I know that
We're gonna be alright
We're gonna be alright now

So what if I
What if I decide that this love is right
It's nothing they can say that will change my mind
There's nothing they can say to me, oh no

Whenever you hold me for a moment
I know I can love you for the rest of my life
Whenever you touch me for a second
I want you to touch me till the end of time
Cause there just one thing I'm sure of
That this dream will never end
Whenever you hold me for a moment
It feels like I'm falling all over again
all over again

So hard whenever I try to explain
My heart it's not gonna change
It's going nowhere
It's gonna be right here babe
And I know this time
There's noting to decide
Cause I know it's right
There's noting they can do that will change my mind
There's nothing they can say to me, oh no

Whenever you hold me for a moment
I know I can love you for the rest of my life
Whenever you touch me for a second
I want you to touch me till the end of time

Cause there just one thing I'm sure of
That this dream will never end
Whenever you hold me for a moment
It feels like I'm falling all over again

It's not so complicated
It's so simple in the end
And it's plain to see I've fallen once again

Whenever you hold me for a moment
I know that I can love you for the rest of my life
Whenever you touch me for a second
I want you to touch me till the end of time
Cause there just one thing I'm sure of
This dream will never end
Whenever you hold me for a moment
I'm falling all over again
All over again
