"Hidden Enemies"

I am coming fast to face up, kill!
Reviving confusion on past days
In front of my eyes, time stands still Envy, you will lose the human race
Cells are dead and your brain needs a morgue
Try to innovate, damage and enslave
All your traps are premeditated
Even the worst, it wont be enough
A tied straitjacket, rush!
In vain, the hate in vain, invades,
Remind the last time I stopped your rage
Trembling legs, I'll defeat you again
This is the proof I bother you Stabbing when I turn back makes you a fool
