The way some cashiers get they cash fuck around have a gun in yo face tied up and they whoopin yo ass yo most cats man they complain cuz they moms get high i can still recall the day i saw a ganster cry man under the hot sun young cats they fuck wit young guns fat ones man if you sellin this you better know the consiquence shit your right in front of corner store wit the fo five slugs some might say theys unity but there is no love crack a smile like a beer bottle dont worry bout the bullet cuz it feel hollow just keep yo foot on the gas throttle these muthafuckas aint no roll models blow ya over with an evil disguise look at this nigga right in front of your eyes where he got shot thats where he lies laying there dead wit open eyes, blow ya over on the street corna its all about that beat soda breakin arms and shoulders cuz this dramas thick as quotas

they bust at you and you bust back but just like a whip you gunna snap back how they gunna fuck wit you fuck that kill them all so they dont come back mindstate crime rate with jail bait man if you mistake a mistake dont even wait but motha fucka get up outa my face its a dirty loss for a dirty game but motha fucka its dirty shame
