Hey you,
I'm getting pretty sick of all the crazy things you do
Somewhere out there, there's another one
That treats me better than you
She likes me
For who i am
And that's fine by me
She likes me for who i am
I know it's hard to believe but
She'll come and drink with me
She'll come play golden tee
And she won't take my money
No one can tell me anything i haven't already heard
Someone can tell me over again, but i'll never learn
She likes me
For who i am
And that's fine by me
She likes me for who i am
I know it's hard to believe but
She'll come and drink with me
She'll come play golden tee
And she won't take my money
She likes me for who i am
I know it's hard to believe but
She'll come and drink with me
She'll come play golden tee
And she won't take my money
