Your picture
Is still
On my wall,
On my wall.
The colors are bright,
Bright as ever.
The red is strong,
Blue is pure,
Some things last a long time,
Some things last a long time.

Your picture
Is still
On my wall,
On my wall.
I think
About you
Often,
Often.
I won't forget all the things we did.
Some things last a long time,
Some things last a long time.

It's funny,
But it's true,
And it's true,
But it's not funny.
Time comes and goes.
All the while,
I still think about you.
Some things last a life time.
Some things last a life time.
Some things last a life time.
