Ladies and gentlemen here comes the million dollar face
She's the candle, a little suicidal
She talks to Jesus about where to go
Now she's invited to the cradle
(she says) it's so official now - I am superficial
I - I wanna be forever, I wanna be whatever
I wanna go official - superficial love
I wanna stay forever I wanna stay whatever
I wanna be official superficial...
Love - high on cocaine
Spirit of rebellion, starts to grow
Jump the mainstream ooh the mainstream
Well it's so official now I'm superficial
I - I wanna be forever, I wanna be whatever
I wanna go official - superficial love
I wanna stay forever I wanna stay whatever
I wanna be official superficial... love
Superficial... love
Information in confusion, visionary love to save
You from the pain - outside
Television like a teddybear, the sweetest
Pet to hold you thru the rain
I'm so delighted tonight
You're all invited to
I - I wanna be forever, I wanna be whatever
I wanna go official now - superficial love
I wanna stay forever, I wanna stay whatever
I wanna be official superficial love
I wanna be forever, I wanna be whatever
I wanna be whatever you want me to be
I - I wanna stay forever, I wanna stay whatever
I wanna be official superficial love
Superficial love you want me to be
You want me to be superficial
