Wonder what she looks like
Wonder how she smells
Wonder what she's wearing
In the deep of herself
Wonder what she tastes like
With what flavour she will come
The shape of her figure
To what she will become
She's so worth waiting for
She's all so worth waiting for?
Wonder if she turns out
To be image of you
Always so determined
About what to do?
Like God's wondrous purpose
The highest of them all
The very crown of life
She's so worth waiting for
She's all so worth waiting for?
Like god's wondrous purpose
The highest of them all
The very crown of love
She's so worth waiting for
She's all so worth waiting for?
All so worth waiting for?
