Yesterday i couldn't believe the way your eyes looked at me sitting by your side why would i want to leave?

I really thought we could be but i was too numb to see the selfish game you were playing on me

Why?
Why me?
what makes you be

so mean to me?

Tonight i waited till late i really thought you would come i found my self all alone face to face with a truth that hurted to the bone

Why?
why me?
What makes you be
so mean to me?
