Why have you brought me here? Can't go back there
We must return, he'll kill you, his eyes will find us there Christine, don't say that, those eyes that burn Don't even think it, and if he has to kill a thousand men

Forget this waking nightmare, the Phantom of the Opera will kill
This Phantom is a fable, believe me, and kill again
There is no Phantom of the Opera, my God, who is this man?
My God, who is this man? Who hunts to kill, this mask of death

I can't escape from him, whose is this voice you hear?
I never will, with every breath, and in this labyrinth where night is blind
The Phantom of the Opera is here, inside [unverified] mind
There is no Phantom of the Opera

Raoul, I've been there, to his world of unending night
To a world where the daylight dissolves into darkness, darkness

Raoul, I've seen him, can I ever forget that sight?
Can I ever escape from that face? So distorted, deformed
It was hardly a face, in that darkness, darkness
But his voice filled my spirit with a strange, sweet sound

In that night, there was music in my mind
And through music my soul began to soar
And I heard as I'd never heard before What you heard was a dream and nothing more

Yet in his eyes all the sadness of the world
Those pleading eyes, that both threaten and adore
Christine, Christine, Christine
