Where are you?
I'm in Ohio
The city I'm in was yours as a kid
As far as I know, far as I know

You left a message for me
I kept it a year
I played it and waited
For you to reappear

So where are you?
I'm in Ohio
If I had my way I'd be gone today
But where would I go?
Where would I go?

I like a punk girl here
I like her dyed black hair

I like her thread bare t-shirt
I like her stained glass stare

But she's not you
You're not in Ohio
So why should I care if you wonder where
Where did I go?
Where did I go?

Nothing here is mine X2

November blood is on the hunting field
And I wish that I could know
How the hunted feel

I'm in Ohio X2
