Do, do what you wanna do
Take all the time you need
Break my heart and feed
The pain inside me
I've never been alone
So I guess I'll finally know
What my life is like
With no one by me

Tell me what's wrong
This makes no sense at all
All this torture when
We could be in love
Tell me what's wrong
This makes no sense at all
All this torture when
We could be in love

It's hard, to look upon your face

In videos or frames
Knowing just yesterday
That we were lovers
But still I'll be alright
It's only hard at nights
When I can't hear your voice
Under the covers

Tell me what's wrong
This makes no sense at all
All this torture when
We could be in love
Tell me what's wrong
This makes no sense at all
All this torture when
We could be in love
