Come drink of my water
Come dive in my ocean,
Fall into the waves...
Dream, dream.

Rush into my soul
On a tide of emotion,
Come away sailing--
With me, with me.

I'll hold you now
As we hide from tomorrow,
Healing the pain
With a kiss for the sorrow.
You need to believe
This love to receive,
Open your heart--
Breathe, breathe.

Walk with me now
While this night
Is filled with magic.
See the moon rising...
Dream, dream.

On a blanket of stars
On a pillow of kindness,
Come lay beside me--
Please, please.
