I wish I could be someone
Who's with you tonight,
I'm leaving my place
Before there's a morning light.
I'm driving away
I'm running my horses fast,
Alone on the highway
To be free at last.

I'm wearing those bracelets
And my hands are tied,
I'll wear them as long
As I have the truth to hide.
The truth is that I'll never
Be free at last,
But what can I do?
I'm running my horses fast.

I still wanna be someone
Who's with you tonight,
I really don't care that person
Is wrong or right.
It's morning and I'm as far
As tried to be...
I'm trapped and I'm free again
Cause you're still with me.
