Those lines that I have crossed
They're always coming back
They're asking to be crossed again
Oh yeah

And every lie i told
And all the truth i said
Is asking to be taken back
My friend

Chorus:
Hi
There's no reason why
Cause there's a reason for everything
There's no reason why
Oh my
Why...

And all my victories
And everything i have
Is asking to be given up
My dear

And everything that hurts
And every love i've lost
Is asking to be tasted again
Oh yeah
