I fell in love with an imaginary girl
(I'm in love, in love with a girl)
She blows my mind, she's from a different world
(Yeah, from a different world)
She's got it all, she's got brains, she's a hottie,
(She's so hot, hot, she's a hottie)
More and more she reminds me of somebody

She's starting to look like you
Starting to sound like you
She's starting to act like you
I wish she could be you

We've got a date, we'll pretend to go to dinner
(Won't you join me at the melody bar)
She's looking great, and I feel like such a winner
(She let's me drive her car)
When we're alone she don't want no other
(She's got her make believe eyes on me)
I'll take her home, she'll be crazy 'bout my mother!

She's starting to look like you
Starting to sound like you
She's starting to act like you
I think she could be you

I fell in love with an imaginary girl
(I'm in love, I fell in love)
She blows my mind, yeah she rocks my world
(She rocks, she rocks hard! )
She's got it all, she's got brains, she's a hottie
(She's got it all, got it all, got it all, she's got it)

More and more she reminds me of somebody
More and more she reminds me of somebody
More and more she reminds me of somebody

I wish it could be you
I wish it could be you
I wish it could be you
I wish it could be you
I wish it could be you
