Over land and sea, moving constantly, you are in the smallest place.
Standing face to face.

Now I can see it, where I never knew. And now Iâ€™ve found it, itâ€™s always been you.

Smiling, from the heart I feel you as you are. Smiling, raining down like sun.
Smiling, and in the my soul I see you as you are.
Smiling on and on and on.

Holding the world in hand, spinning round at your command,
You are in every DNA, your signature displayed.

Now I can see it, where I never knew, and now Iâ€™ve found it.
Itâ€™s always been you.

Offer up a world in your hand, crossing tide and time to bring me home.
