Iâ€™ve been to the Garden
Breathed the sweetest air
Alive and wanting more
Ate the fruit and honey
Iâ€™ve tasted the sweetest sweet
I am full on life

So come on, come on now
Letâ€™s run together
Come on, come on now
Letâ€™s get together

To life, to love
To life, to love

I am addicted
I need more life from You
Donâ€™t let me suffocate
I need You closer
I wanna feel new wine now
Flowing through my veins

Behind the Song:

'Song of Solomon 5:1 This track is a toast to Life and to love...a celebration of Life. Itâ€™s that feeling when everything is right in the world, and youâ€™re walking down the street humming a tune with a smile all over your face. Itâ€™s the time when you have experienced God in an incredible way and you canâ€™t express it in words.' - Andy Hunter
