I look into the great expanse
Your majesty is shown
Rainbow skies, sparkling ice
Beneath Your sapphire throne

I wash my hands
You wash my heart
Renew my innocence
I close my eyes
You see inside
Transparent as the ice

I fall into your blinding light
You've opened up my eyes
Crystal tears, visions clear
Your glory touch the sun

Angelic sounds
Fill the air
Surrounding me
Everywhere

Behind the Song:

'After Moses asked that question, God came and he experienced the presence of God. Also..when Moses met with God in the meeting tent he would have to wash his hands and his feet as a sign of cleansing himself before God. This track is about me "washing my hands" before I meet with God, and being with Him...' - Andy Hunter
