If I were you I'd be a little more sensitive
If I were you I'd be a little more attentative
If I were you I'd be a little more like me
If I were you I'd be a little more like me
I grow down
As soon as I wake up you start kickin me down
If I were you I'd be a little more alternative
If I were you I'd be a little more conservative
If I were you I'd be a little more like me
If I were you I'd be a little more like me
I grow down
As soon as I wake up you start kickin me down
