Still contemplating over something that she said
It pissed me off so much
I just can't seem to get it out my head
Can't understand it why I think of you sometimes
I thought I took those feelings
Thought I buried them in fuckin lime
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Gotta get it out my head
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Gotta get it out my head
Still contemplating over something that she said
You've got your hands under your chin
Your problems resting on your head
She said she'd be there's what she told you
But she lied
And now it's seeming like that stupid bitch
She might've changed her mind
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Gotta get it out my head
Yeah yeah yeah yeah
Gotta get it out my head
