Go Mody, It's your birthday
Tena Jones is the only girl I want
We have a son he looks just like me
She's so fly she don't have to flaunt
From the south she cooks just right, see
Last night she got upset, she left
From the way it looks she might be gone
I love her though, I love her though, I love her though, I love her so

Baby with you gone
I won't enjoy the food
I won't enjoy the music or the songs
I need you home
I'm just not in the mood
I won't enjoy my party all alone

(Chorus:)
Happy birthday to ya
To me it's just another day
If my baby ain't with me singing
Happy birthday to ya
It's really just another day

She walked out I was so surprised
With my son who looks just like me
Very upset at me rolled her eyes
And her neck shook just slightly
I'm so wrong she is so divine
Apologized but she still might be gone
I love her though, I love her though, I love her though, I
love her so

Baby with you gone
I won't enjoy the food
I won't enjoy the music or the songs
I need you home
I'm just not in the mood
I won't enjoy my party all alone
(Chorus:)
Happy birthday to ya
To me it's just another day

If my baby ain't with me singing
Happy birthday to ya
It's really just another day

Everyday sunshine since we got together
Partners like John and Pauncherella
You sweet like chocolate dipped in vanilla
Cold when I'm alone but we hot forever

Wait bro
Really do appreciate it but it's late though
Still upset at how you treated me don't make no sense
You got me tense
I'm princess you prince or I'm out the fence

Baby with you gone
I won't enjoy the food
I won't enjoy the music or the songs
I need you home
I'm just not in the mood
I won't enjoy my party all alone

(Chorus:)
Happy birthday to ya
To me it's just another day
If my baby ain't with me singing
Happy birthday to ya
It's really just another day

Don't even care
I love you but you do me wrong
So what if it's your birthday
Boy you better treat me right
Love you shouldn't do me wrong
That's why I missed your birthday

Happy birthday
