There was a man a lonely man who lost his love
through his indifference.

A heart that cares
that went unshared
and slowly dies
within his silence.

CHORUS:- Now solitaire's the only game in town and every road that takes me takes me down, I find myself that's easy to pretend, I'll never love again and deep into myself I play the game, without you love it always ends the same, while life goes all around me everywhere, I'm playing Solitaire.

Another day a lonely day so much to say that goes unspoken and through the night each sleepless night
the eyes are closed
the heart is broken.

CHORUS:- Now Solitaire's the only game in town and
every road that takes me takes me down, I find myself that's easy to pretend I'm coming back again and deep into myself I play the game without you love it always
ends the same, while life goes all around me
everywhere, I'm playing Solitaire.

Solitaire's the only game in town.
Every road that takes me takes me down.
